Diverse, vibrant and breathtaking! Crimson Cabaret: Celebrating Creative Women brings together singers, dancers, actors, comedians and musicians for a unique night of cultural and artistic diversity!

Confirmed performers include First Nations Dancers Full Circle; Tap Dancers Hot Flash Hoofers; African dancer Jackie Essombe ; Drummers DivaDrum; Contemporary Dancer Julie Chapple; Comedic Theatre/Mime Performance Artist Miss C and dubD300; Singer/Songwriter MJ Cyr; Filipino Folk/Rock Band Laksa Mana; Operatic Soprano Robyn Driedger-Klassen with Pianist Karen Lee Morlang; Fusion Bellydancers Sisters of Alchemy; Contemporary Dancers Tomorrow Collective; Kathak Dancer Trisha Rampersad; Singer/Songwriter Veda Hille and more.

"Crimson Cabaret" will benefit the North Shore Women's Centre, a 36-year old organization that actively addresses issues of violence against women, feminization of poverty and systemic oppression that occurs within all aspects of society. The Centre offers women and girls across the North Shore a range of programs and services including a family law clinic, one-on-one beginner's computer training, lesbian/bisexual and single mother's support groups, peer counseling, a multimedia library, etc.

The evening also includes a silent auction with items donated by local individuals and businesses with everything from Reiki and massage treatments to handcrafted jewelry, white water rafting trip, all-day ski passes, a weekend getaway plus more! The Silent Auction will begin at 5:30pm.

"A remarkable show to be a part of! Crimson Cabaret brings together a solid group of outrageously talented women onto one stage. It was incredible to collaborate with such provocative creativity from so many different artistic styles. It represents a huge Western Canadian arts' community."

- Acclaimed Singer Songwriter Coco Love Alcorn performed Crimson Cabaret 2008

"An exceptional event which draws together the best of every genre – a truly unforgettable show!"

- Barbara Clausen, Artistic Director of New Works

"I look forward to this event every year! It's fast becoming the event to go to on the North Shore every winter!"

- Linda Stewart, Previous Publisher of the North Shore Outlook Newspaper
