Project funded by the Public Health Agency of Canada

Program Facilitator needed for...

Young Women's Gender Violence Awareness and Healthy Sexuality Program

- Girls – Flip the Script with EAAA® is a 12-hour small-group, evidence-based intervention designed specifically for self-identified teen girls 14-18 years old of all sexual identities who have not yet graduated high school.

- Girls – Flip the Script with EAAA® was adapted from the original evidence-based Flip the Script with EAAA® program for 17–24-year-old women in college/university. Like the original program, Girls – Flip the Script with EAAA® is based on theory, research evidence, and best practices for providing girls and young women with the knowledge and tools to defend themselves against sexual coercion and assault. The Girls – Flip the Script with EAAA® curriculum is similar to the original program.

Project funded by the Public Health Agency of Canada

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Attend and participate in a 9-day training program and dress rehearsals - January 8th to 10th, January 23rd & 24th, and February 16th to 18th, 2027;
- Learn the theoretical and empirical basis of sexual assault resistance;
- Deliver (in pairs) a 12-hour program to young girls ages 14-18;
- Participate in additional training and practice as required;
- Attend and participate in supervision and team meetings both in-person and virtually;
- Maintain regular communication with the Girls - Flip the Script with EAAA® Program Coordinator;
- Advise the Girls - Flip the Script with EAAA® Program Coordinator of any issues or concerns in a timely manner;
- Participate in the research component of the program; and
- Complete additional administrative and organizational tasks as assigned by the Girls - Flip the Script with EAAA® Program Coordinator.

Project funded by the Public Health Agency of Canada

Essential Qualifications:

- Excellent interpersonal skills including excellent verbal skills
- Comfort discussing sexual topics including sexual coercion and assault, as well as healthy sexuality and relationships
- Must be capable of resolving conflict with youth participants. The ability to correct rape myths and women-blaming among high school-aged participants without discouraging their continued attendance is critical (training and practice in this area is provided)
- Previous work and experience with violence against women is an asset
- Previous work or experience as a facilitator, or work with teenagers or young women is an asset
- Must be capable of demonstrating physical resistance techniques
- Must be available during the week and able to travel
- Due to licensing restrictions, this position is open to women 28 years old or younger with a post-secondary degree or equivalent experience

This is a temporary, casual employee position. The rate of pay is $36.28/hour.

To apply:

Please email or drop off your cover letter and resume by Monday, November 23rd, 2026, to:

North Shore Women's Centre
Attention: Oreofeoluwa Adeyonu
131 East 2nd Street, North Vancouver, BC V7L 1C2
Email: oreofeoluwa@northshorewomen.ca